TODD F. MAYNES

Todd Maynes, a partner in Kirkland's Chicago office, focuses his practice on the tax aspects of debt restructuring, bankruptcy, and mergers & acquisitions. Todd has served as chairman of the Planning Committee for both the University of Chicago Federal Tax Conference and the Chicago-Kent College of Law Federal Tax Institute. He teaches bankruptcy taxation at Northwestern University School of Law, previously taught advanced income taxation at Chicago-Kent College of Law, and lectures regularly at the University of Michigan Law School. He is the only currently active tax attorney who is a member of the National Bankruptcy Conference. He is co-chairman of the Kirkland & Ellis Finance Committee, chairman of the Kirkland & Ellis Benefits Committee, administrator for the Firm's retirement plans, and Tax Matters Partner for the Firm.

Todd has been the lead tax advisor in numerous major bankruptcies and restructurings, including United Airlines, Conseco, Calpine, Charter Communications, Visteon, and WR Grace. Chambers USA said that Todd has a "spectacular" reputation in the bankruptcy tax area, and is a "talented and very smart man." Todd has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America, the Legal 500, and as one of Illinois' Super Lawyers. He has published many articles on tax matters, speaks frequently at tax conferences, and is the author of the BNA Portfolio on Start-Up Expenses. The Legal 500 reports that Todd "is rated as 'a brilliant lawyer' who is 'a fighter, but canny enough to know when to take a deal.'"
